Together We Worship and Together We D-NOW

Our D-NOW student weekend. Everything Matters, begins next Friday, January 31.

Our praying for the weekend, however, begins NOW. Please pray for the students who are participating, the leaders who are preparing, the homes that are hosting, and all the others that are helping. Most of you will not be directly participating in the weekend, but your prayers engage your heart with God's as He shepherds our students to embrace His instruction in Colossians 3:17 - And whatever you do, whether in word

"normal" Sunday, we need those of you not engaged in the weekend to attend our 8:15 service, if possible. We know this may be inconvenient and even a sacrifice, but we need to ensure that all D-NOW participants can comfortably fit within the 10:45 gathering.

Together We Worship: The reason, of course, that we can't all fit in one service is because our Sanctuary is being renovated. The projection and our prayer is that we are able to enter the Sanctuary for worship by the end of March. The second and third floors of our education building should have new HVAC systems in about 2 months. Your faithful giving toward our 4.2-million-dollar goal is a joy to see.

Again, be sure to pray for D-NOW, and our Together We Worship project!
